

What's up, Brent? It's Amanda Bynes here. Thank you so much for asking for a video from me on Cameo. That was so awesome to get that request.

Also, wanted to answer some of your questions. First off, what have I been up to lately? I've been reading a book called Scar Tissue by Anthony Kiedis from the Red Hot Chili Peppers. Such an amazing book.

Oh my gosh, you have to check it out. Awesome. Other than that, I've been writing a screenplay, which has been a pretty awesome experience, I have to say.

I'm really hoping that the screenplay gets optioned by a studio and turned into a movie, in which case, thank you in advance for supporting that. Other than that, just been keeping busy doing art. Pretty awesome.

Thanks again for asking for this video on Cameo. Have a good night. Bye.
